Re: United States v. Christian Romandetti, et al.
Criminal Docket No. 18-614 (JS)

Dear Counsel:

Enclosed please find the second production of the government's discovery in accordance with Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The government reiterates its request for reciprocal discovery from the defendant.

Specifically, the government is providing materials in the enclosed disc as set forth in the attached Discovery Log.

If you have any questions or requests regarding further discovery or a disposition of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Please be advised that, pursuant to the policy of the Office concerning plea offers and negotiations, no plea offer is effective unless and until made in writing and signed by authorized representatives of the Office. In particular, any discussion regarding the pretrial disposition of a matter that is not reduced to writing and signed by authorized representatives of the Office cannot and does not constitute a “formal offer” or a “plea offer,” as those terms are used in Lafler v. Cooper, 132 S. Ct. 1376 (2012), and Missouri v. Frye, 132 S. Ct. 1399 (2012).

Very truly yours,

RICHARD P. DONOGHUE
United States Attorney
